Dear friend:

Thank you for visiting our website on the Internet!

We already began a new year and AHAM needs amazing and dedicated women like you! AHAM is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization located in Greenville, SC. AHAM is the only Latina organization in the Upstate SC that, since 1999, has awarded more than $139,000 in scholarships to 76 Hispanic students in the Upstate SC. In 1999, AHAM awarded the first scholarship of $1,000. In 2010, AHAM awarded 7 scholarships totaling $25,000. In May 2011, AHAM will award a total of $27,000 more in scholarships!

We hope that you're interested in becoming an AHAM member. Your desire to volunteer with us to further our mission in 2011 and beyond will be invaluable and very important for us. Our Hispanic community is growing in the Upstate SC and it is now more than ever that it needs our help. We ought to unite ourselves and make our voices heard!

Continuing with our tradition of 13 years, our Association, yes because will be yours and ours, will continue promoting higher education among our Hispanic students, our future leaders. We'll continue promoting our culture to enrich others. Finally, AHAM will continue working with other non-profit organizations to improve the welfare of the Hispanic community here.

In 2011, AHAM will continue promoting your own development. AHAM will facilitate professional and personal development seminars. It looks like 2011 will be another fascinating year for us and especially for our community just like 2010 was.

Thank you for your interest! Don't hesitate! Complete and send your membership application now by going to http://www.ahamsc.org/files/Membership_Application_2011_Form.pdf. If you like, you can also print another application for a friend. Your membership fee is tax deductible. Ninety percent (90%) of your contribution goes to our scholarship fund and only 10% goes to our operational expenses. This is possible because AHAM has neither paid nor unpaid staff and operates 100% with volunteer members!

We look forward to seeing you and working with you in 2011!

Sincerely,

Julia Elena Pinto

President 2011-2012
